Zmyslinski Inducted as Member of Government's Senior Executive Service

Nancy Zmyslinski, formerly of St. Thomas, N.D., and currently the director of Accounting Services, Defense Agencies at the Defense Finance and Accounting Service, was inducted into the ranks of the Senior Executive Service on November 12.

The SES is a cadre of civilian career executives responsible for ensuring that the senior management of the government is responsive to the needs, policies and goals of the American people.

As Director, Accounting Services, Defense Agencies and Client Executive for Defense Agencies, Zmyslinski oversees an organization that provides financial management and accounting services to the Department of Defense (DoD), and other DoD agencies.

"I am excited to serve the Defense Agencies in this capacity," Zmyslinski said.

Previously, Zmyslinski served as the deputy director and director Accounting Services for DFAS Columbus. She served as the client executive for DFAS; Defense Logistics Agency (DLA); the Defense Commissary Agency (DeCA); the Defense Contract Audit Agency (DCAA); the Defense Contract Management Agency (DCMA); and the Defense Human Resources Activity (DHRA). She has 22 years of federal government experience, including work as a management analyst and accountant from 1980 to 1983 at the Defense Depot, Memphis, Tenn., and from 1983 to 1988 at the Defense Construction Supply Center, Columbus, Ohio.

Zmyslinski is a Certified Government Financial Manager and a member of the American Society of Military Comptrollers and the Association of Government Accountants. She is a past President of the ASMC Buckeye Chapter. She also fulfilled an ombudsman role for the Executive Office of the President of the United States.

Zmyslinski holds a bachelor of science degree in Business Administration from the University of North Dakota, where she majored in Accounting.

About DFAS

DFAS is the largest accounting and finance operation in the world, with its headquarters in Arlington, Va. DFAS provides finance and accounting support to the Defense Department. The agency manages over $517 billion while performing in excess of 100 million accounting transactions annually. The agency pays 5.5 million military service members, Department of Defense civilians, and military retirees and annuitants. DFAS also pays for all vendor and contractor support to DoD, and disburses over $1 billion a day.
